

Research Sources for 177 Bay Street Botany. NSW.2019

Research Source 1

Title: State Heritage Inventory record — House Group, 165–179 Bay Street, Botany

Type: Heritage inventory record

Author / organisation: Bayside Council / Heritage NSW

Year: Current record, with significance updated 29 July 2018

Applies to: Whole house group; relevant to 177 Bay Street as one of the eight houses

Citation:

State Heritage Inventory, Heritage Item ID 1210020, “House Group,” 165–179 Bay Street, Botany, Bayside Council / Heritage NSW.

Summary:

This source provides the statement of significance, historical notes, physical description, integrity assessment, construction period, early Sands Directory occupants, heritage listing information and management recommendations for the 165–179 Bay Street House Group.

Suggested licence / credit note:

Information and images are copyright Heritage NSW or the respective copyright owners. The record owner is Bayside Council and the data source is Local Government.

Research Source 2

Title: City of Botany Bay Heritage Review

Type: Heritage study / review

Author / organisation: E. & R. Conroy

Year: 2018

Applies to: Heritage assessment and updated significance for the Bay Street group

Citation:

E. & R. Conroy, City of Botany Bay Heritage Review, 2018. Listed in the State Heritage Inventory source references for Heritage Item ID 1210020.

Research Source 3

Title: Botany Heritage Study

Type: Heritage study

Author / organisation: Tropman and Tropman

Year: 1996

Applies to: Earlier heritage assessment of the Bay Street group

Citation:

Tropman and Tropman, Botany Heritage Study, 1996. Listed in the State Heritage Inventory source references for Heritage Item ID 1210020.

Research Source 4

Title: City of Botany Bay: A Thematic History

Type: Written history

Author: Elizabeth Conroy

Year: 2017

Applies to: Broader Botany history, Aboriginal context, land grants, settlement and suburban development

Citation:

Elizabeth Conroy, City of Botany Bay: A Thematic History, 2017. Cited in the State Heritage Inventory historical notes, especially for background context on Botany.

Research Source 5

Title: Sands Directories

Type: Directory / occupant record

Date range: 1884–1933

Applies to: Early residents and occupants of 177 Bay Street and neighbouring houses

Citation:

Sands Directories, 1884–1933. Used in the State Heritage Inventory record to identify early residents of 165–179 Bay Street, including 177 Bay Street.

Research Source 6

Title: Former Botany Council Building Application Register

Type: Council building register

Date range: 1910–1960

Applies to: Building approval for the Bay Street semi-detached cottages

Citation:

Former Botany Council, Building Application Register, 1910–1960. Listed as a reference source in the State Heritage Inventory record.

Research Source 7

Title: Sydney Water Water Board detail sheets

Type: Map / infrastructure record

Organisation: Sydney Water

Applies to: Historical mapping and property context

Citation:

Sydney Water, Water Board detail sheets. Listed as a map source in the State Heritage Inventory references.

Research Source 8

Title: SIX Viewer aerial photography

Type: Photograph / aerial imagery

Date range: 1943–2018

Applies to: Aerial evidence of the site and surrounding area

Citation:

SIX Viewer, aerial photography 1943–2018. Listed as a photographic reference source in the State Heritage Inventory record.

Credits / acknowledgements section

Suggested public acknowledgement

Historical and heritage information for this entry has been drawn from the State Heritage Inventory record for House Group, 165–179 Bay Street, Botany, Heritage Item ID 1210020. The record is owned by Bayside Council, with data sourced from Local Government and made available through Heritage NSW. Additional historical context cited within the record includes work by Elizabeth Conroy, E. & R. Conroy, Tropman and Tropman, Sands Directories, former Botany Council building records, Sydney Water mapping and SIX Viewer aerial photography.

Researcher / author

Person / organisation Role

Bayside Council Record owner / local heritage authority

Heritage NSW State Heritage Inventory publisher / copyright holder for inventory material

E. & R. Conroy 2018 heritage review

Elizabeth Conroy 2017 thematic history background

Tropman and Tropman 1996 Botany Heritage Study

Former Botany Council Building application register

Sands Directories Early resident / occupant evidence

Sydney Water Historical mapping

SIX Viewer Aerial photography reference